WE NEED
YOUR HELP RIGHT NOW!

A Union is only as strong as the collective action of its membership. This is never more evident than leading up to and during a strike.

A mobilized and fully informed membership will be able to support its negotiations teams through the power of the picket line. This key element for success is only possible with well-trained picket captains and cluster organizers. This is one of the best ways to show your Employer that we are prepared to walk out unless they improve their last offer.
